

Hash Social (drinking) Event!!!

Bangkok, EoY 2020.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Was thinking (problem number 1) to organize a 2021 gathering on a lazy Sunday afternoon (when no S2H3 is running).

Was thinking it should involve beer!

Was thinking it should involve a boat!

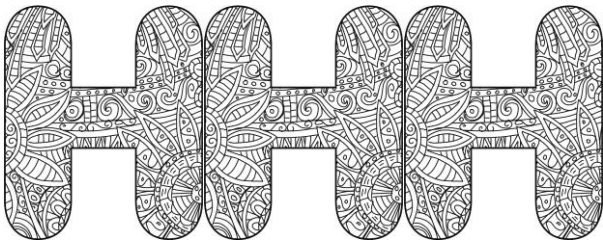

All that thinking made me thirsty, and made me go to Koh Kret. That is when and where I found out that our good friend Chit now rents out a boat. And serves beer on that boat.

That made me think even more.

That made me think we should have a Hash Social Sunday Afternoon (24.Jan.2021) Sundowner on his boat.

But, that would mean we would need to get about 50 people together. 50 people to share the rental of the boat, snacks and 3 to 4 kegs of beer (20l each). Not just any beer, but beer brewed by our friend Mr. Chit.

So ... How about it. Would you be interested in joining me? My estimate is about 1'100 THB per person (400 for the boat – 300 for snacks and 400 for beer).

I am reaching out to all Bangkok Hash Kennels to see who would be interested.

In Brief:

When: Sunday 24.Jan2020 @ 15:00h/16:00h

What: Boat; Snacks; Beer for 3 hours

Where: Chit beer on Koh Kret (Pakkret)

If you are interested:

Send an email to LadyBoy: peter@vandenhoucke.com and let me know how many you are planning on joining (anybody is welcome).

First come, First served!

Once I know how many would be interested, I will make a better price calculation and send you an email to make the donation for the trip. 😊

OnOn – LadyBoy!

Note: For the non beer drinkers, you can bring some wine as well ... but I will NOT give hoot when collecting the fees!
